

The Authors / Les Auteurs

Hugh A. Taylor

Mr. Taylor is Director of the Archives Branch, Public Archives Canada.

Peter Stursberg

Mr. Stursberg is a free-lance broadcaster, journalist, and author.

Bernard Ostry

M. Ostry est Secrétaire Général des Musées nationaux du Canada.

Don Page

Dr. Page is Deputy-Director of the Historical Division, Department of External Affairs.

Laurel Doucette

Ms. Doucette has recently submitted her Masters' thesis to the Department of Folklore, Memorial University of Newfoundland.

Charles C. Hill

Mr. Hill is Assistant Curator of Post-Confederation Canadian Art, National Gallery of Canada.

Raymond Vézina

Dr. Vézina est conservateur des oeuvres d'art, Archives publiques Canada.

Don Rubin

Professor Rubin is currently on sabbatical leave from the Department of Theatre, York University.

Esmé Crampton

Ms. Crampton is Speech Consultant at the Faculty of Education, University of Toronto. Her new book on speech communication, Good Words, Well Spoken (Heinemann) is due for publication this summer.

Howard Fink

Dr. Fink is Director of the Radio Drama Project and teaches in the Department of English, Concordia University.

Jacques Gagné

M. Gagné est stagiaire en recherches historiques au Service des archives sonores, Archives publiques du Canada.

Robert Cosbey

Dr. Cosbey, President of the Canadian Oral History Association, teaches in the Department of English, University of Regina.